In Memoriam

William Randall Ingram

Lillie Mae Baker

We proudly dedicate this 1957-1958 Beckvillian to "Miss Avis", who after nearly 40 years of service as a teacher, sponsor, counselor, and friend, will retire this year from the Beckville High School faculty. We, speaking for the entire student body, wish to say, "Thank you, Miss Avis, for your kindness, helpfulness, patience, and interest while serving young people. May God richly reward you."

A Message From The Superintendent

Mrs. Margie LaGrone

R. C. Beauchamp

Dear Students:

The pages of this book portray in pictures another year in your school life. To some of you it is just another year, while to others it means the end of your formal education, for you will soon begin the task of earning a living for yourself and possibly for others.

Your teachers and your school have made a sincere effort in trying to prepare each of you to take your share of responsibility in this great country of ours. In assuming your share of this responsibility, you should be reminded that there are many things which you must begin doing for yourselves, which, in the past, have been done for you by others.

My hope and my prayer is that you aspire to high things and that you sincerely work toward attaining that goal.

Sincerely,

The Principals Speak

Dear Students:

In America the most valuable thing in life is possible, the development of the individual and his creative powers.

Many people are interested in your life and how it will be developed. But the extent to which you develop your life and creative powers is entirely up to you. The opportunity is here, knocking at your door.

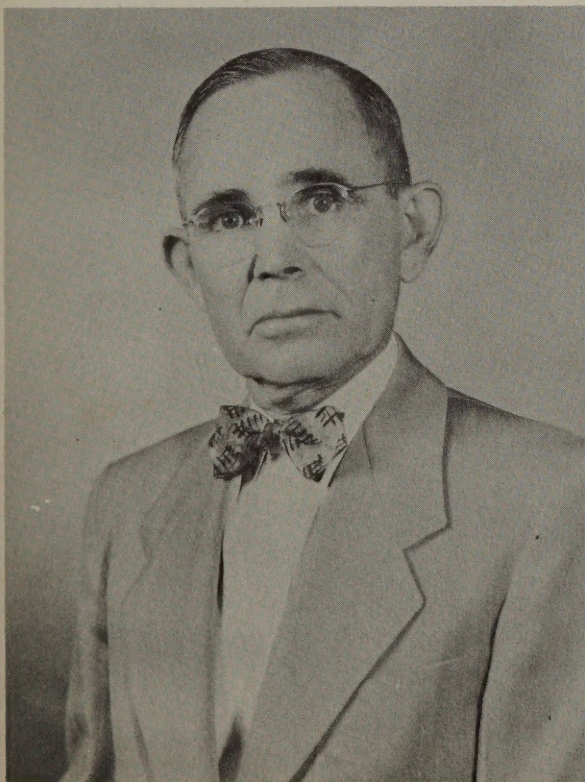

Will you open the door?

Yours sincerely,

Ben M. Wallace

Dear Students:

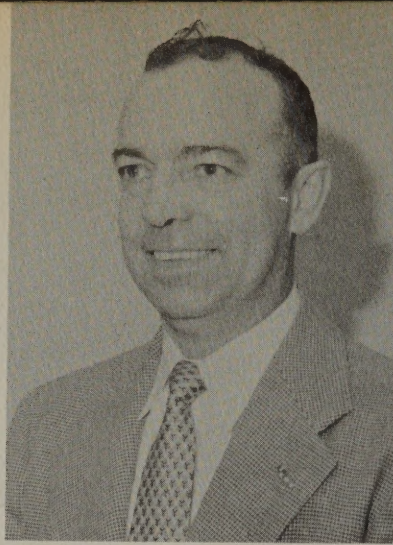

I wish to congratulate the Staff and the other members of the student body upon completion of another beautiful issue of the Beckvillian. May your copy always bring back to you many happy memories of the days spent in B. H. S.

Sincerely,

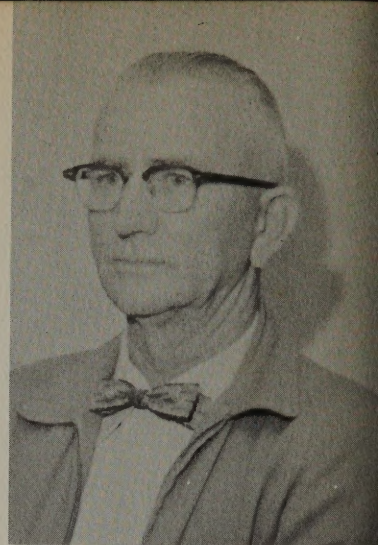

J. R. Smith
